Teaching Methodology of PGP IB &CM

Investment Banking and Capital Markets

- Investment banks provide financial services to commercial banks, corporations and the Government.
- Investment Bankers are consultants for taking smart investment decisions in business.
- Their expertise can be applied in various arenas such as mergers and acquisitions, equity market, credit and IPO analysis, etc.

- Capital market refers to a trading place wherein individuals and corporates indulge in buying and selling of investment securities
- Equities, Derivatives and Fixed Income securities are complex financial assets which require Capital Market professionals to understand the nuances of the markets.
- Analysts, Portfolio Managers and Relationship Managers assess the performance of these assets and help in smart investment decisions.

Role of Investment Banking & Capital Markets Analyst
